The Douglas King Award

for Written Journalism

2018

The Guild is delighted to announce that in conjunction with its partner, Vantage Insurance Services, the Douglas King award for written journalism will once again be made this year.

The award will be presented to the journalist who, in the opinion of an independent panel of judges, produces the best article on any subject relating to the caravan industry. This includes but is not limited to:

- General articles and reviews
- Caravan and motorhome touring
- The holiday home and park home sector
- Technical articles

To qualify for entry the article must have been published in the public domain during the period 1st August 2017 to 31st July 2018. There is a maximum of one entry per journalist. Submissions should be made to the Guild's Secretary (details below) no later than 5pm on Friday 17th August 2018.

The award is open to individual journalists irrespective of age, discipline or Guild membership. The published media may include magazines, newspapers, websites, TV and radio. There is a maximum of one entry per journalist.

The award takes the form of a small trophy and a cash amount of £1000. It will be presented at the Guild's industry dinner in October which coincides with the Motorhome and Caravan Show at the NEC. The judges will be looking for the entry that delivers the most engaging and interesting experience for the reader.
